Basically HISDA (Healys Integrated Self defense Academy) operates under a separate ABN and business name than YJD (Yun Jung do).

All martial arts members of HISDA are members under the ABN number Healy's Integrated self-defense Academy (Healy's Health ABN 50-7110604-560) operates under a license agreement with Yun Jung Do but as a distinct separate business entity Transactions are conducted between HISDA and YJD for taxation purposes and recorded accordingly.

THE MARTIAL BUSINESS IS OWNED BY GRAHAM HEALY OPERATING AS HISDA so students have dual qualifications.

- 1) Certification of YJD signed off by Grandmaster Yun (Graham Healy as chief Instructor)
- 2) Certification of HISDA signed off by Master Graham Healy

So the Student is Recognized by BOTH .

Also HISDA has several other INTEGRATED ENTITIES like ICS (integrated Combat solutions) and Healy's Boxing Academy . These all have separate certifications by Master Graham Healy.

RECOGNITION ?

is completely relevant to who is signing the certificates and what their background and qualifications are that represent that signature .
